By clicking this box, you are requesting that American Airlines enter into a lease agreement with the vendor providing the container chosen by you in the above section. You agree and understand that all charges concerning this container lease are separate from American Airlines Cargo freight charges and will be passed through to your organization by American Airlines Cargo. Charges may include but are not limited to: container lease charges for a specified lease term (and fees for additional days), express order and other rush request fees, cancellation fees, change order fees, preconditioning fees, repositioning fees, delivery fees, collection fees, demurrage fees, non-return fees, and similar fees. For additional information on fees and other pass through obligations with regard to the containers, please click [here]. You understand that fees are subject to change from time to time by the vendor. For the most up to date information on fees, please contact the applicable vendor directly.

I am not requesting American Airlines Cargo lease a container on my behalf. I understand that I am responsible for obtaining a container that is pre-authorized by American Airlines Cargo for carriage on American Airlines aircraft.
